BC ELECTRIC RAILWAY LULU ISLAND LINE ON DVD

Amateur 16 mm colour film shot in 1949 by the late Ted Clark, Richmond resident and streetcar enthusiast.

The 22-minute silent colour film documents interurban travel from downtown Vancouver along the Arbutus corridor to Marpole, across the trestle to Lulu Island, and through Richmond to the Steveston terminus. Additional footage shows the line heading east from Marpole through Burnaby to the New Westminster terminus.

PRICE = $20

All funds raised go to the “Des McManus Memorial Fund” to be used for community projects in support of the City of Richmond Archives.
