The Recreation Fee Subsidy Program (RFSP) helps people of all ages living in Richmond who are in financial hardship to access registered and drop-in programs. Individuals and families are welcome to apply. A family is defined as one or two adults, married or common-law, and their children (legal dependants) who live in the same household. If other family members share the household, each family member or couple must apply separately.

Please list all applicants and print clearly. Only submit one form per family or couple (married or common-law). This form must be filled out completely and include all supporting documents.

Frequently Asked Questions

1. What is the Recreation Fee Subsidy Program?

The Recreation Fee Subsidy Program (RFSP) helps people of all ages living in Richmond who are in financial hardship. RFSP participants receive financial support for many registered and drop-in parks, recreation and cultural programs offered by the City of Richmond and Community Associations and Societies.

2. What is financial hardship?

Financial hardship is when a person has trouble paying for basic living costs such as food, clothing, housing, and does not have savings or other financial resources.

3. How is a family defined?

A family is defined as one or two adults, married or common-law, and their children (legal dependants 18 years and under and 19–24 years if enrolled full-time at a post secondary institution) who live in the same household.

4. What is “Income from other sources not shown”?

This includes world-wide income and monetary gifts received that have not been declared on a tax return.

5. How do I get copies of required documents?

Please visit richmond.ca/subsidy for more information or contact the RFSP office at subsidy@richmond.ca or 604-247-4909.

6. How long will it take to process my application?

Application processing takes an average of 10 business days if the application is complete with all supporting documentation. Application status will be emailed or mailed to the home address.

7. When can I begin using my new RFSP subsidy?

RFSP 2024–2025 is valid from September 1, 2024 (or from the date of approval) to August 31, 2025 and applies to many registered and drop-in programs. Unused subsidies will expire on August 31, 2025.

8. Can I apply subsidy towards previous purchases that were completed before subsidy approval?

No, subsidy is valid from the date of approval and remains active until August 31, 2025. Subsidy will not be retroactively applied to previous purchases. To access subsidy, please submit an application and allow the application to be processed before completing any registrations or payments.

9. Can I apply subsidy towards Fall programs once I am accepted for the upcoming program year?

Yes, once Fall programs are available for registration and applicants have been accepted into the upcoming RFSP year, subsidy may be applied towards upcoming Fall program registration.

10. Can I carry over unused subsidy from one program year to the next?

No, unused subsidy cannot be carried over to the next program year and expires on August 31. However, it is possible to use remaining subsidy in the summer to register for programs that begin in the fall. As subsidy is intended to be used for programs ending within the same program year it was allocated, please be aware that if a participant uses a previous year's subsidy to register for programs that begin on or after September 1 and then withdraws from the class, or if the class is cancelled for any reason on or after September 1, the previous years' subsidy is no longer available via the registration system (i.e. no subsidy credit can be issued).

11. Do I need to re-apply each year?

Yes, all applicants need to re-apply as financial situations can change over time.

12. Who can I contact if I have further questions?

For more information, please contact the RFSP office at subsidy@richmond.ca or 604-247-4909.

13. What if my documents do not reflect my current financial situation?

Please contact the Subsidy office: subsidy@richmond.ca or 604-247-4909.
